

Jordyn Wendorff, SPT

Jordyn Wendorff is a Doctoral Physical Therapy Student from the University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota.

Per her Doctoral degree training, she has received specific training in differential diagnosis, primary care screening, pharmacology, radiology and imaging, manual therapy, therapeutic interventions, health care management, prevention and wellness, health promotion, histology, and pathology.

Jordyn is experienced in strength and conditioning training through past employment as an Exercise Specialist in Minnesota. She has interests in pediatrics, orthopedics/sports medicine, injury prevention, and sports psychology. She has had past experiences in outpatient orthopedics/rural care, acute care, and pediatric/school settings in Minnesota and North Dakota. Through past employment at multiple wellness centers, Jordyn has had the opportunity to instruct adolescents on proper lifting techniques and the importance of exercise.

Her undergraduate degree was in Exercise Science with minors in Psychology and Leadership completed at University of Jamestown in Jamestown, North Dakota in 2018. Like all of our PT staff, she is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association.

Eugene PT has a strong commitment to education. Its PT staff not only teach post-graduate courses throughout the United States, but have four APTA Credentialed Clinical Instructors that supervise final residency programs prior to DPT graduates taking their Board Examinations. Our clinical education program has gained a reputation over time, having contracts with over 10 universities throughout the U.S.A. Our goal is to train our PT Residents to be able to provide the exceptional standard of care that is our mission. Seeing any of our Residents should be a rewarding experience given the training they have been and are presently being given.
